

International School of Cape Town: Full Time Assistant Teacher

The International School of Cape Town (ISCT) is one of the largest Cambridge schools in the country, offering the British curriculum from Nursery to A level, since 1998. The school prides itself on consistently producing excellent academic results in a warm and supportive environment, incorporating the latest in teaching skills and technological innovation. Although our student body is 60% South African, we have representatives from over 25 countries, offering a rich diversity of cultures and nationalities and equipping our alumni to be successful and adaptable global citizens.

We have a program whereby we endeavour to grow quality teachers-in-the-making. In order to do this we seek to recruit and employ assistant teachers, who are currently studying towards a teaching qualification in Foundation Phase or Early Childhood Education. As an equal opportunity and affirmative action employer, we seek only to employ prospective candidates from disadvantaged backgrounds to these positions. We are currently seeking the services of an individual who has a passion for small people and their learning and development.

Key Stage 1 Teacher Assistant (Nursery, Reception, Years 1 and 2)

The requirements for the post are as follows:

- Applicants must be registered to study Foundation Phase or Early Childhood Education, or a Bachelors of Education (Foundation Phase).
- Applicants must be from a previously disadvantaged background.
- Applicants must be able to assume responsibilities from January 2020.
- Applicants must be able to supervise children after school and to offer learning support in and out of the classroom.
- Applicants must possess a strong work ethic and be willing to extend themselves in their professional growth.

If this position is of interest to you, please send a comprehensive CV to employment@isct.co.za as well as to fill in the online Google form found here

Closing date: Friday 1 November 2019
